

Board News

Thank you to all our members who took the time to participate in our recent vote to accept our financial statements. The scrutineers (life members Carole Hicks and Les Jones) have presented their report to the Board and the results should be ratified at our next Board meeting on March 11. We will advise the members of the outcome soon after.

With planning for Outdoor Nationals, Indoor Nationals and the Trans Tasman Challenge well underway, there are many members of local organising committees working flat out to deliver excellent events for our members. These events rely on significant volunteer hours, and we deeply appreciate the effort that is put into putting on these events.

Selection for overseas events is in full swing, keep an eye on the selection announcements and show your support for our archers and officials who represent us to the world.

Thanks,
Katherine Watson
Archery NZ Chairperson

The World Games Archery at the World Games

Countries competing at the CQT are Australia, Tahiti, Fiji, Tonga and New Zealand.

Did You Know?

Archery NZ supports inclusivity and acceptance of all our archers and one way we do this is through our policy for transgender archers. Archery NZ has its own policy on transgender athlete participation in domestic competitions, including World Archery registered events. Essentially, all that is required is for transgender archers to notify Archery NZ of their gender so they can compete in a category that matches their gender identity.

World Archery has a separate policy that applies to world ranking events which are very rarely held in NZ -these are different from our domestic World Archery registered events.

Check out section 6 of our Member Protection Policy for more details, it's available on our website.

New Integrity Code for Sport & Recreation

The Code of Integrity for Sport and Recreation (the Integrity Code) has been published. Read the Integrity Code here: Code of Integrity for Sport and Recreation

The Integrity Code comes into force in early March. At that stage we will share guidance on the adoption process alongside model policies and resources to support adoption of the Integrity Code. The Integrity Code was created in response to the sport and recreation sector asking for clear guidance on how to manage threats to integrity like abuse, corruption, bullying and discrimination. Participants at all levels deserve positive sport and recreation experiences, the Integrity Code will support organisations to lift capability and work collaboratively with us to build a culture of integrity.

The final Integrity Code has been informed by so many in the sector whose interest and contributions have helped to sustain and guide this kaupapa from the beginning. Thank you for your interest in this mahi and your contributions.

Research

My name is Michelle Jackson, I am a PhD student at the University of Derby in the UK. I am looking for participants to take part in a study that is looking into the individual differences of athletes in archery that may or may not have experienced target panic.

Taking part involves completing several short questionnaires which should take approximately 30-45 minutes. Your participation will remain confidential and anonymous and is completely voluntary. You may also withdraw from the research after participation within 14 days. There is no obligation to participate.

To take part you must meet the following criteria: Be an athlete at a national level in archery, and to have a minimum of 1 years' experience competing at national level.

The Zespri AIMS Games

The Zespri AIMS Games is Australasia's largest junior sporting event, held annually in Tauranga Moana. Celebrating diversity, the Games provides an opportunity for adolescents from all demographics and education contexts to compete in sporting competitions, to meet others from outside their normal peer group, and to learn and build on their social interaction skills. The Zespri AIMS Games is highly regarded by national education and sporting organisations and is considered a leader in its area.

The AIMS Games Trust is a strategic partnership between the four founding intermediate schools (Otumoetai Intermediate, Mount Maunganui Intermediate, Tauranga Intermediate and Te Puke Intermediate), Sport Bay of Plenty and Tauranga City Council. Advisory Trustees from Sport New Zealand, ACC and NZAIMS (New Zealand Association of Intermediate Middle Schooling) also work alongside the Trust to provide strategic advice on the continued development of the Zespri AIMS Games. Regional and national sporting organisations are actively involved in the Zespri AIMS Games to share knowledge and expertise in sports event governance, leadership, operational capability and systems.

Since its inception in 2004, the Zespri AIMS Games have grown from 760 competitors representing 17 schools and four sporting codes, to the 2024 tournament which welcomed 12,660 competitors, representing 395 schools and 27 sporting codes. It is remarkable to see a concept that Tauranga locals had, evolve into an event that in 2024 had more athletes than the Paris 2024 Olympic Games. Even with this outstanding growth, the Zespri AIMS Games continues to be largely delivered by Tauranga and Western Bay of Plenty locals and is successfully hosted within the region using existing public sport and recreation facilities.

Tertiary League 2025 - underway

The Archery NZ Tertiary League is about to get underway for 2025. If you have archers in your club who are studying at any tertiary institute as defined in the rules (not just universities and polytechs), please encourage them to give this a try. As well as the Open division, Novice and Development levels are available and were undersubscribed last year (points going begging here). There are points available for achieving pinscores as well as placing in the top three.

Our tertiary archers are social and enjoy meeting up with other people with similar interests, particularly if they have just moved to the area. If you have archers who would like to join this league, please consider advertising a date when the round will be shot so they can shoot as a group.

Attached are the Rules and Shooting Schedule for 2025. All information on the league can be found on the Archery NZ website and the UTSNZ website (shortly), including an FAQ page. Any questions can be sent to the Tertiary League Coordinator tertiary@archery.org.nz

Thanks,
Jan

PS: The Tertiary League follows on from Archery in Schools, the Youth Postal League and College Sport (Auckland) , it is an inexpensive way of introducing and continuing to keep young people in our sport. Please encourage them.

Thank You!!

The plea in our last newsletter was answered and we have an Event Administration Team for the Outdoor Nationals!

They have been catching up with everything that needs to be done, establishing lines of communication with the LOC and training under PJ to learn the intricates of IANSEO and spreadsheets.

The torch named “Zhumeng” homophonically echoes the Chinese phrase for chasing dreams, aligning with the slogan of the torch relay—“Lighting Dreams with The World Games”. Chengdu will also break new ground by staging the first-ever torch relay in TWG history.

Sport Integrity Commission Te Kahu Raunui - Changes to our Testing Programme

We're making some changes to our testing program, and it's important that your athletes and their support teams are aware. Please share this information with athletes and those who work closely with them.

New testing kits

We're changing our testing kits to Lockcon for urine and venous blood samples. The new kits:

- are used by anti-doping agencies worldwide, including by Sport Integrity Australia and the International Testing Agency
- are approved by the World Anti-Doping Agency
- are easy to use with better accessibility than our previous kits
- offer more features for safe sample transport
- are lightweight, robust, secure and tamper-proof

Two vials for Athlete Biological Passport (ABP) samples

To make use of developments in testing science, we will begin to collect all ABP samples in two vials. These will form the athlete's A-sample and B-sample.

This change means

- minimum impact on athletes
- use of innovative new testing methods, improving our ability to identify doping
- greater confidence that your athletes' competitions are clean and fair
- no change in testing frequency

New-look doping control form

The doping control form that athletes check and sign when they are tested is being updated as part of our digital transformation. The new form:

- is safe and secure
- offers an improved user experience

We invite you to get in touch if you have any questions or concerns. You and your athletes can read more about these changes at Keeping up with anti-doping advances | Sport Integrity Commission Te Kahu Raunui.

Classification

The 2025 IPC Classification Code and International Standards are now in effect. IPC will publish supporting resources to accompany the new Code including a summary of changes in the near future. Please reach out to Kristin Farrell, PNZ Senior Manager, Sport and Pathways (kfarrell@paralympics.org.nz) if you have any classification-related questions.

World Archery is currently integrating the new IPC classification code into the rules. At present nothing is substantially different.

Archery GB Classification videos

Archery GB has introduced a series of six new classification videos, providing clear and accessible guidance on the disability classification process.

Archery NZ follows a similar process.

Archery GB New Classification videos to Support Disability Archery

Para Archery

Para-Archery is a full integrated discipline of World Archery. World Archery is the International Governing body for Para-Archery.

- Sport rules
- Classification Rules
- International Championships
- Qualification process for the Paralympic Games endorsed by International Paralympic Committee, who has the final decision.
- Inclusion in the strategic plan

Inclusion

Archery is one of the most inclusive sports. People with a disability can share the shooting line with able-bodied archers, in a wheelchair, with para/tetraplegia, without leg/legs, without one or both arms, with hypertonicity, balance impairment or visual impairment.

How to succeed?

In addition to ARCHERY knowledge:

- Specific technical approach
- Guaranteed fairness in competition
  - Definition of category
  - Allowance of adaptive equipment
- Knowledge of adapted rules

Para Archery contd...

Gradual Development

Classification

For physical impaired archers, persons who compete are grouped by, level of impairment, gender, the kind of bow they use and sometimes age.

Adaptive Equipment

Adaptive equipment is not intended for performance enhancement and must match the level of impairment as reported on the Medical Intake form and confirmed by bench and field testing. Its use is only to enable fair and equal sport, not to give any archer an advantage over another.

Archery NZ acknowledges the use use of World Archery diagrams, pictures and text from the WA online call in February.

New Para Bylaw – U21 category

Using the categories CO, RO, W1, and VI, World Archery has created a Youth event, short distance format, 18m, Indoor or Outdoor to be used for National Tournaments.

Archery NZ is looking at this format to create interest within the para community to consider archery as a sport for them.

Don't forget the next World Archery Para Championships is in Canberra in 2027 !!!
